Subject: Not giving the town time to digest tax info

Message Body:

Still in disbelief that the SBAC gave the town almost no time to digest the tax ramifications of the 7 project options put forward.

Tax burden is so clearly the #1 factor people in Cape are considering when making a decision about schools. As far as I can tell, people in Cape had 48 hours or less to see the 7 designs with the tax info finally included. How that is not seen as important by the SBAC is beyond me.

And the rush to get out of the meeting last night was insulting. Tim Thompson gleefully crumpling up paper like a toddler who just discovered newspaper for the first time was the icing on the cake.

Clear to me that the majority of SBAC members have made their mind up already and do not want any public feedback unless it helps their case.
