Sarah Jordan, a teacher in the program, accepted the certificate.

8. SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

8a. The Superintendent reported that the Cape Elizabeth Education Foundation is continuing in the process of organization. In the next few months they plan to start the process of collecting seed money and perhaps allot some initial small grants. They are looking at the fall of 2002 as a time when they will lodge a capital campaign.

8b. In the update on the Future Direction Planning, the Superintendent reported that the Climate Committee will be administering a survey to all staff in January to establish baseline data. A survey of students and parents is planned for next year.

8c. The Superintendent announced that Bruce Lind, a veteran middle school teacher, has submitted a letter expressing his intent to retire after 33 years in Cape Elizabeth at the end of the current school year. It was noted that he will be recognized at the June School Board meeting.

8d. Dr. Forcella noted that Anine Burgess will be unable to return to school. A letter requesting an extension of her sick leave until the end of the school year has been received along with documentation from her doctor and a letter from the teachers association authorizing use of days from the sick leave bank when they are needed.

8e. The Board was informed that Claire Ramsbotham, a sixth grade teacher, has requested using accumulated sick leave for maternity leave starting in April.

8f. The Superintendent noted that the first issue of the school district's newspaper, The View from Cape Elizabeth Schools, will be published this month. This is a result of a need identified through the Future Direction Planning process for communication with the community. A second issue will be published in the spring.

8g. Dr. Forcella announced that a public forum is planned to get input on developing a system-wide student code of ethics. The meeting will be held in the Pond Cove/Middle School cafetorium on Monday, January 7, 2002 at 7:00 p.m.

10b. Policy Subcommittee

Policy Subcommittee Chair Jennifer DeSena reported that the committee met on Wednesday, December 5, 2001 and, after a brief discussion of the athletic task force work, spent most of the time discussing the special education policies scheduled for first and second reading at tonight's meeting. She announced that the January meeting has been canceled. The next meeting is scheduled for February 6, 2002 at noon in the Jordan Conference Room.

10c. Building Committee

Building Committee Chair Marie Prager reported that HKTA has been hired and has already started their preliminary work at the high school. She reported that the proposal to secure bonds to fund the renovations to the high school and build a new kindergarten wing at Pond Cove will not go to referendum. Rather, approval from the Town Council is what is required and will be sought for each project.
