Hi Maureen –

We understand that the subject project is before the Planning Board this month for review. We have reviewed the submission package provided with this application and further understand that no physical alterations will be undertaken to the property as part of this application to clarify lot lines, easements, and other administrative items. Therefore, we do not have any engineering related comments on the this application.

Should there be any questions or comments regarding our overview of this application, please contact us.

Thanks, Steve

Stephen D. Harding, P.E. Senior Project Manager
