Reported as submitted.
Gwyneth Maguire met with George Morse, president of the Library Foundation on January 9 regarding the Foundation's funding of the Gallery Artists' Receptions. She left that meeting with a different impression of his and the Foundation's stance on funding than George provided Kyle in an email on January 11.
There was consensus among the Committee that if funds for the receptions are coming out of the Block Grant then that grant should be increased to compensate.
Gwyneth was able to provide some additional information and context on the Foundations' revisions to the grant process from her meeting with George. Kyle had been instructed by George and the Foundation not to share information about it with the Committee. Gwyneth was able to lead a discussion on the process and the next steps and when the Committee can expect some information.
