RE: Nominations to MMA's Legislative Policy Committee

The election season is about to get fully underway and competitive claims for bold new visions of state government are beginning to fill the air. When the next legislative session begins in January 2011, a newly-elected Legislature will inhabit the State House and a new Governor will reside in the Blaine House.

How are Maine's towns and cities going to be treated by the new Administration and Legislature? How will we characterize the intergovernmental relationship in Maine two years from now? Four years from now?

To put those questions into some context, this outgoing Legislature has overseen:

- o a significant retreat on the goal of paying for 55% of public school funding with broad-based tax revenues;
- o unprecedented raids on municipal revenue sharing;
- o a serious weakening of the Homestead property tax exemption enacted 12 years ago; and
- o deep cuts to the Tree Growth reimbursements that are so important to some of Maine's most rural communities.

So how is the new Governor going to propose dealing with a structural biennial budget deficit that some people believe will approach $1 billion?

The Maine Municipal Association takes its direction on all questions regarding the goings-on at the State House in Maine from 70 elected and appointed municipal officials serving in towns and cities throughout the state who are chosen by their peers to serve on the Association's Legislative Policy Committee (LPC). The first task of the new LPC after it is elected will be to develop the legislative changes Maine's municipal officials believe should be submitted to the 125th Legislature. Now is the time for all the municipalities in Maine to nominate their candidates to serve on this diverse policy committee which is so vitally important to the Association.

Enclosed is a Nomination Form for the July 2010 – June 2012 term of the Legislative Policy Committee. The purpose of the LPC is to define municipal interests and to maximize those interests through effective participation in the legislative process.
