Committee No. 1: Zoning Board of Appeals

Committee No. 2: Fort Williams Advisory Commission

Address: 88A Two Lights Road

Home phone:

Work phone:

unlisted: No

Occupation: Attorney

Employer: Self-employed

Why these boards?: This past spring, I recently relocated here with my young family from London, England. Participation is simply a meaningful part of a full and rewarding life. As for my skills and experience, they may be best utilized on the Zoning Board of Appeals and/or the Fort Williams Advisory Commission. It seemed to be a natural fit.

Skills/Talents: I have extensive legal experience as an attorney with some 15 years experience and am licensed in Maine, Massachusetts, and England (& Wales too). I am this year's recipient of the Vincent L. McKusick Award for my article in the Maine Bar Journal (MBJ). I am now a member of the MBJ's Editorial Committee and the MBJ is about to publish my follow-up article on civil costs. I would bring to these positions a different perspective, an eye for detail, and good communication skills.

Previous Service: Member, Editorial Advisory Committee, Maine Bar Journal -- June 2012 to present

Pro Bono Panel Member (in process), Immigrant Legal Advocacy Project -- November 2012 to present

Employed By Town/School: No

Volunteer For Town/School: No

Flexible Schedule: Yes
