Building Use Policy

Rationale: Patrons seeking knowledge, respite or personal growth look to their public library to provide a place for more than just the warehousing of books: they require an institution that provides a public forum for socially useful discussions of current public concern as well as space for other civic or cultural activities. The Thomas Memorial Library seeks to answer this need by setting aside for public use a Community Room designed to house the meetings, programs and special events of groups and organizations in Cape Elizabeth and provide equal access to all users in accordance with the Cape Elizabeth Town & School Use of Facilities Guidelines and Policies.

Responsibilities: The Board of Library Trustees and the Library Director shall be responsible for working cooperatively with the Town's Facility Manager in seeking adequate funding to insure that public library building facilities are properly maintained and meet all recognized standards and physical requirements as well as the needs of the community.

The Library Director shall be responsible for the day-to-day management oversight of the library's facilities and will be responsible for the normal implementation of this policy. Requests from a patron seeking for exemption from the Building Use Policy may be brought by should be addressed to the Library Director for disposition, or patron seeking exemption to the attention of the The Board of Library Trustees shall be kept informed of all such requests. All room reservations must be made through Community Services the Facilities Department subject to Town Policy.

The library staff will be responsible for communicating the Building Use Policy and the responsibilities of the Facilities Department to all patrons who inquire about using library space. The staff will also be responsible for providing any services directly related to insuring the proper use of library facilities during normal library hours.

Criteria: Any use of the library's meeting room or Gallery must meet the following requirements:

* Availability: Cape Elizabeth public non-profit organizations; Town Emergencies & Elections; Town/School Department Programs; Community Services Programs; Town/School Committees or affiliate groups may reserve the library's Community Room for the purpose of presenting programs or holding meetings of a civic or cultural nature. Meeting space is normally available during library hours only when scheduled staff is present. Space is accessible to patrons with disabilities.

Requests for use of library space during non-library hours may be granted by the Library Director and may require the user to pay custodial fees and/or supervisor fees as determined by the Facility Policy Guidelines and assigning organization.

* Scheduling: Because library activities have priority, arrangements for usage must be confirmed generally no later than Thursday Noon for any request for the following week, Monday through Sunday.

Due to the extensive use of the Community Room for library sponsored events (including those programs hosted by the Cape Elizabeth Historical Preservation Society and Arts Commission), prospective users of this facility may schedule only one meeting at a time; moreover, requests for this space will not be accepted more than two months in advance of the date of the meeting

* Equipment: In an effort to support community based programming, the Library makes available its limited stock of tables and chairs to those using its meeting rooms. The use of library-owned A/V equipment, kitchen facilities or other paraphernalia is also possible but must be arranged at the time of booking. Groups or individuals with specific requirements are advised to check with the Community Services Facilities staff as soon as possible to determine whether or not the library can provide for their special needs. Without exception, the library CANNOT procure items for groups or individuals that it does not already own! Locating, providing, and returning equipment not owned by the library
