

2019 Comprehensive Plan Review Schedule

Introduction

At the December 19, 2018 Town Council workshop, the Town Council discussed the process it will use to review the draft comprehensive plan. The draft Future Land Use Plan will be submitted for draft review to the Maine Department of Agriculture, Conservation and Forestry in January, 2019 and the entire plan will be submitted for formal review after adoption.

Schedule

Wednesday, May 8th 6 pm-9pm	Town Council workshop (Comprehensive Plan Committee invited to attend): Review plan pgs. 6-194 covering Public Participation Summary, Population and Demographics, Economy, Transportation, Housing, Public Facilities and Services, Fiscal Capacity and Capital Investment Plan, Natural Resources, Agricultural and Forest Resources, Marine Resources, Water Resources, Historic and Archeological Resources.
Monday, May 13th	Town Council meeting: Town Council schedules comprehensive plan public hearing for June 10, 2019.
Wednesday, May 15th 6pm-9pm	Town Council workshop (Comprehensive Plan Committee invited to attend): Review plan pgs. 195-287, 4-5 covering Existing Land Use, Recreation and Open Space, Future Land Use Plan, Regional Coordination Plan, Implementation and Evaluation of Recommendations, Appendices 1 and 2, Vision Statement, Executive Summary
Wednesday, May 22nd 6pm-9pm	Town Council workshop: Town Council discussion of entire plan/finalize revisions.
Wednesday, May 29th	Town Council revised comprehensive plan posted to town website
Monday, June 10th	Town Council meeting: Public Hearing
Monday, July 8th	Town Council meeting: Consider vote for adoption
Wednesday, September 4th	Town Council workshop: Review implementation plan