- (c) "At large" shall mean off the premises of the owner and not ~~being~~ under the control of any person whose personal presence and attention would reasonably control the conduct of the animal. ~~by means of that person's proximity to the dog, and their ability to manipulate and command the animal.~~

For the purpose of this definition, "owner's premises" means the residence or residences, including buildings and land and motor vehicles, belonging to the owner. Dangerous dog does not include:
  - 1. A dog certified by the State and used for law enforcement use;

1                   2.       A dog that injures or threatens to assault an individual who is on 2                   the dog owner's premises if the dog has no prior history of assault
3                   and was provoked by the individual immediately prior to the injury 4                   or threatened assault; or

5                   3.       A dog that inflicts serious bodily injury on or causes the death of 6                   an individual who is committing a crime against an individual or

13                  that causes a reasonable and prudent person who is not on the dog owner's 14                  premises and is acting in a reasonable and nonaggressive manner to fear 15                  bodily injury, other than serious bodily injury, by assaulting or threatening 16                  to assault that individual or individual's domesticated animal; or a dog that 17                  causes damage to property or crops not owned by the dog owner while the 33                  is always within sight of the Responsible Party and the dog is capable of 34                  complying with Voice Control. A violation of this Ordinance occurs upon 35                  a failure to comply with the definition of either Voice Control or Sight
